

Drunken sailor

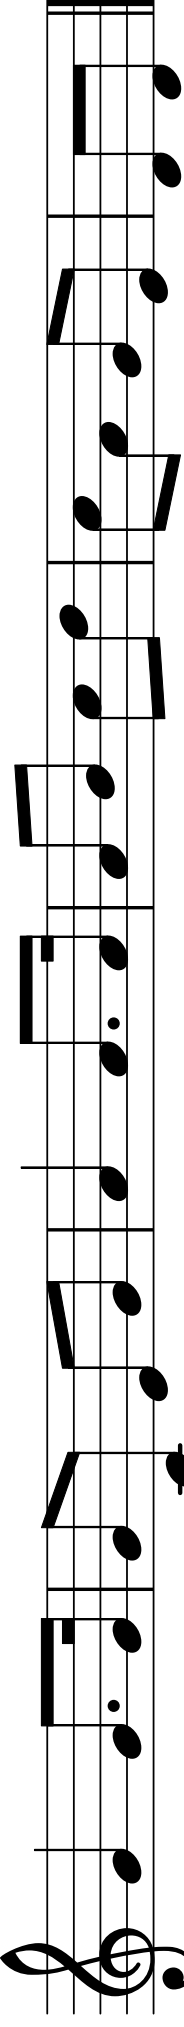

What shall we do with the drunken sai - lor, what shall we do with the drunken sai - lor,

The first line of music is written on a single staff in 2/4 time. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some beamed sixteenth notes. The lyrics are written below the staff, aligned with the notes.

what shall we do with the drunken sai-lor, ear-ly in the mor-ning? Hoo - ray and up she ri-ses,

The second line of music continues the melody from the first line. It features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with a dotted quarter note. The lyrics are written below the staff, aligned with the notes.

hoo - ray and up she ri-ses, hoo - ray and up she ri-ses, ear-ly in the morning.

The third line of music concludes the melody. It features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with a dotted quarter note. The lyrics are written below the staff, aligned with the notes.

Give him a dose of salt and water, ...

Put him in the long-boat till he's sober, ...

Heave him by the leg in a running bowlin', ...

Take him and shake him and try to awake him, ...

Give him a taste of the bosun's rope-end, ...

Put him in the long-boat till he's sober, ...

Pull out the plug and wet him all over, ...

Heave him by the leg in a running bowlin', ...

That's what to do with a drunken sailor, ...
